

I strongly believe that K-LOVE is a valuable station to the community here in Santa Rosa because this community has a high population of young families that need the support that KLOVE provides through their positive music and message, both for youngsters and families as a whole. I consider it unjust to displace this broadcast by LPFM and hope that KLOVE will continue to serve this community for years to come.

Sincerely, Rose Koch